Are you looking for a summer job that is more than just a job?

Lake Brownwood Christian Retreat is looking for college interns to join our summer staff. Interns are an integral part of making camp happen. As behind-the-scenes servant leaders, you'll jump in wherever you're needed to help create an experience that campers and groups will remember.

No two days at camp are the same. You might find yourself preparing and serving meals, helping with grounds or maintenance, cleaning buildings, lifeguarding, or tackling whatever needs to be done to make the day successful. You'll be part of nearly every aspect of camp.

Some days are long, the work can be physical, and flexibility is a must. In return, you get something most summer jobs can't offer: a summer surrounded by strong community, new experiences, great friendships, and the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of others.

At its heart, this internship is about serving others and being part of something bigger than yourself. It's a chance to step away from the distractions of everyday life, challenge yourself, discover what you're capable of, and grow as a leader while making a difference in the lives of those around you.

Here are a few details about the job:

- You will be paid bi-weekly. We will do our best to plan around a week off if planned at the beginning of the summer.
- Orientation will be the last week of May.
- Our work ends after cleaning all the buildings the first week of August.
- You will occasionally be on call to assist directors with evening programming.
- Room and meals are provided.

Come spend your summer at Lake Brownwood Christian Retreat. We think you'll leave with more than a paycheck. You'll leave with memories, friendships, and a summer you'll never forget.

If you think this sounds like a wonderful way to spend your summer, please return the following application to Shawn Colson at lbcr@lbcr.org.
